Jennifer Rosenthal, Esquire Elected as Board Chair, CASA of Monterey County

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Monterey County announced that Attorney Jennifer Rosenthal has been elected to serve as Board Chair for CASA of Monterey County. CASA of Monterey County recruits and trains community volunteers from all walks of life to be Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) for foster children and youth. Upon completion of training, the CASAs advocate for the children and youth, while helping to pursue a safe and permanent home.

Ms. Rosenthal's talent and passion to serve as a voice for others developed when she began working in her father's law firm at a young age. Graduating from the University of California Santa Barbara, and the Monterey College of Law, Jennifer Rosenthal has established herself as an experienced, highly respected, no-nonsense attorney who passionately represents her clients in both civil litigation and criminal defense.

Attorney Rosenthal believes in giving back to the community. Ms. Rosenthal gives generously of her time and resources, and has served on CASA of Monterey County's Board of Directors since 2014, serving as Co-chair of the Development Committee, and Vice Chair of the Board.

She also spent six years on the Legal Services for Seniors where she helped advocate for Monterey county seniors suffering from financial and physical elder abuse, loss of their homes and health. "Being actively involved with CASA for the past 5 years, I've witnessed firsthand the life changing influence its programs have on a child's life. I couldn't be more proud to serve in this important leadership capacity," Jennifer Rosenthal said. "There is no organization more dedicated to helping vulnerable children heal, grow and become healthy, prosperous and productive adults. I stand committed to ensuring we pair more children in the foster system with trained volunteers who advocate for their needs."
